

PC COMBAT PACK ELITE 15L

PC COMBAT PACK ELITE 15L

The Masada Armour PC Combat Pack Elite 15L is a modular combat back panel designed for seamless integration with plate carrier systems. Optimized for hydration, personal mission gear, and dedicated helmet storage, the pack can be quickly attached via MOLLE interface or converted into a standalone backpack using detachable shoulder straps. Compact, durable, and mission-ready — built to enhance operational flexibility without compromising mobility.

FEATURES:

- Modular Dual-Configuration System – Functions as a rear MOLLE-mounted combat back panel or converts into a standalone backpack with detachable shoulder straps.
- Rapid Attach / Quick-Release Interface – Dedicated mounting strap kit enables fast attachment and detachment from the plate carrier for rapid mission reconfiguration.
- Integrated Helmet Carry System – External elastic helmet pouch with adjustable retention straps for secure and stable transport during movement.
- Optimized Storage Layout – Dual side zippered utility pouches for quick-access equipment, plus a lower admin compartment for organized storage of mission-essential gear.
- Hydration-Ready Platform – Internal hydration sleeve with protected hose routing port for operational field use.
- Load Stability & Operator Comfort – Side compression straps for volume control, reinforced construction with drainage grommets, and a concealed removable ventilated mesh back panel for enhanced comfort when used independently.
